[The Eighth Provincial Conference of the Process-servers' Association—Resolutions—Reference—Correspondence ending with your letter, dated 2nd May 1935.]

I am directed to say that the Government have carefully considered the resolutions passed by the Eighth Provincial Conference of the Process-servers' Association, but that they regret their inability to comply with the requests contained therein.

APPENDIX VII.

[Vide answer to question No. 424-D asked by Mr. K. A. Nachiyappa Gounder at the meeting of the Legislative Council held on the 2nd November 1935, page 451 supra.]

Notification.

Under the provisions of section 78 of the Indian Registration Act XVI of 1908, as amended by subsequent Acts, the Government are pleased to make, with effect from the 1st January 1932, the under-mentioned alterations in the Table of Registration Fees, published at pages 316–319 of Part I of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 30th March 1909, as amended by subsequent notifications:—

Add the following as a new sub-clause 1 (k):—

"1. (1) Besides the fee payable under the foregoing provisions, there shall be paid for the registration of every document of such length as would in the opinion of the registering officer occupy more than two pages of the register, an extra copying fee at the rate prescribed in article 14 (1) infra for every page or part thereof in excess of the first two pages.

NOTE (1).—A page in the register book shall be taken to consist of 400 words. In respect of a document, which in the registering officer's opinion, consists of 1,000 words, the extra fee shall be leviable for (1,000—2 × 400) = 200 words only.

NOTE (2).—This article is not applicable to documents registered under Registration Rule 114."
